

Ex-School Cook or Similar Needed for Elder Lunch Clubs in Bexleyheath and Greenwich

We are seeking an experienced chef to join our team at the Lunch Club, where you will prepare nutritious meals for our community. This role involves cooking at both our Bexleyheath and Greenwich locations every Monday and Tuesday, while also providing support and guidance to kitchen volunteers in a collaborative environment.

Key Responsibilities:

- Prepare and cook meals for the Lunch Club in Bexleyheath and Greenwich.
- Train and support kitchen volunteers, fostering a positive learning environment.
- Ensure compliance with Food Hygiene Certification Level 2 standards.
- Maintain a strong understanding of kitchen safety and food hygiene regulations.
- Manage food ordering and ensure timely delivery of supplies.
- Set menus that align with the dietary needs and preferences of attendees.

Ideal Candidate:

- Holds a Food Hygiene Certification Level 2.
- Demonstrates a solid understanding of kitchen safety and food hygiene practices.
- Previous experience cooking for the elderly or in a community setting is preferred.

Additional Information:

You will undertake all duties in accordance with the Irish Community Services Equal Opportunities Policy and all relevant Policies & Procedures. This job description is not exhaustive; you may be expected to perform various tasks as necessitated by your changing role within the organisation and its overall business objectives. You must also be willing to undertake any training and other activities relevant to the position as arranged by your line manager.

We will be holding interviews and a trial cooking day for shortlisted candidates.

Immediate Start

Salary: London Living Wage - £13.05 per hour (negotiable depending on experience)

Hours: Part-time – Monday & Tuesday, 9am until 3pm

Interested?

If you are passionate about cooking for the community and want to make a difference, please contact Shauna:

 Email: director@irishcommunityservices.org.uk

 Call: 0208 854 4466

We look forward to hearing from you!